

SRFMTTI organized tree plantation campaign “एक पेड़ माँ के नाम Plant4Mother ”

In line with the initiatives by Ministry of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare, Southern Region Farm Machinery Training and Testing Institute, Garladinne Anantapur District organized a tree plantation campaign “एक पेड़ माँ के नाम Plant4Mother ” on 29.08.2024 under the supervision of Dr. BM Nandede, Director SRFMTTI elaborated the importance of tree and government initiatives to make such drive to save mother earth from various climatic changes. Heads of various sections along with staff, students and contractual staff and residents also participated in a campaign. Residents and all participants were advised to plant tree in each household minimum one person one tree in household and survive them with daily care. More than 70 participants participated in the drive and more than 200 were planted by all participants. It includes peepal, neem, banyan trees. Director thanked all the staff/students and residents for their active participation in the campaign initiated by Government of India.

