2	(i) Every tenderer must deposit an Earnest Money Deposit (E.M.D.) of Rs.4,000 through Bharatkosh (http://bharatkosh.gov.in) to participate in the tender auction for the Tamarind fruit crop. Tenders will not be considered if the E.M.D. is not deposited along with the tender. (ii) The tenderer/bidder must sign the tender form. Unsigned bids are liable to be rejected. (iii) The E.M.D. amount must be deposited by Bharatkosh portal at the office. The tender form can also be downloaded from the Institute's website: www.srfmtti.dacnet.nic.in . The cost of tender form is FREE.
3	Interested tenderers may inspect the condition of the farm orchard on any working day (Monday to Friday) between 9:00 A.M. and 5:00 P.M., with prior permission from the Farm In-charge or the designated Officers, as authorized by the competent authority.
4	The tenderer is required to furnish their full name and complete address in the tender form.
5	The tenderer must submit the tender form in a sealed envelope clearly superscribed with ' Tender for Purchase of Tamarind Fruit Crop. ' Tenders may also be submitted via Registered Post, provided they are received before the due date , i.e., 27.10.2025 by 11:00 A.M. The Institute shall not be held responsible for any delays caused by postal services or any other unforeseen circumstances.
6	The tender form must be submitted no later than 27.10.2025 by 11:00 A.M.
7	The tender will be opened on 27.10.2025 at 11:00 A.M. in the Committee Room of the Administrative Block at S.R.F.M.T.T.I., Garladinne.
8	Opening of Tender: Bidders/tenderers are welcome to be present in person or may authorize a representative to attend the tender opening on their behalf.
9	For the Tamarind fruit crop, the successful bidder is required to deposit 25% of the bid amount on the spot on 27.10.2025 . The remaining 75% must be paid by 28.11.2025 or prior to the commencement of cutting, harvesting, collecting, of the crop, whichever occurs earlier. All payments shall be made only through the Bharatkosh web portal at http://bharatkosh.gov.in . Detailed instructions for making the payment are available for download on the Institute's website: www.srfmtti.dacnet.nic.in , along with this tender form.
10	It is hereby clarified that, under no circumstances shall cutting, plucking, harvesting, collecting, of the crop be permitted unless the full bid amount has been deposited with the office . In the event of failure to remit the full payment within the stipulated time frame, all amounts deposited—including the Earnest Money Deposit (EMD) and the on-the-spot payment—shall be forfeited and credited to the Government account.
11	The successful bidders shall have the right to harvest the fruit crop only up to the validity of the tender, i.e., until July 2026 . During the harvesting period, bidders are required to harvest only fully matured fruits . Harvesting of immature fruits , which are likely to mature after the expiry of the tender period, is strictly prohibited .
12	The successful bidder shall not sub-lease the tender under any circumstances . If it is found that the tender has been sub-leased, the entire amount deposited shall be forfeited without any further notice . The orchard must be maintained in an orderly and proper manner by the successful bidder. It is further clarified that bidders shall have no right to demand the provision of regular farm activities, such as irrigation, by the Institute .
13	Tenderers shall be permitted to cut, harvest, pluck, or collect fruits from the said orchard only on working days (Monday to Friday) and strictly between 9:00 A.M. and 5:00 P.M.
14	Tenderers shall raise no objection to the officials of this Institute conducting farm operations, field activities or inspections as and when required.
15	Cutting or removal of trees, felling of wood and loading / unloading of any unauthorized or irrelevant materials are strictly prohibited . Any such activities, if found to be carried out, will attract legal action as per applicable rules and regulations.

16	The bidder may be permitted to carry out activities such as the application of fertilizers, spraying of pesticides and other necessary agricultural treatments. For this purpose, the institute will arrange the required equipment , such as a tractor with sprayer or other agricultural machinery. However, the cost and procurement of materials such as pesticides, fertilizers and nutritional chemicals shall be borne and provided by the bidder .
17	The institute shall carry out all routine activities related to the general maintenance of the orchards, such as irrigation, etc., in accordance with the prevailing rules and regulations. Irrigation water will be provided subject to the availability of water and the yield status of the bore wells. The bidders shall be responsible for weeding under the canopy of the trees. The Institute will carry out inter-culture operations in the spaces between the rows. Bidders shall not have any right to demand, argue, or interfere with the institute staff regarding the diversion or exclusive allocation of irrigation water to their allotted orchards. Water management will be undertaken by the institute in coordination with all concerned bidders, based on the overall availability of bore well water.
18	Prior permission must be obtained from the Farm Superintendent, Section In-charge, or Farm Supervisor before undertaking any field work or operations in the allotted orchards or fields. It must be clearly understood that bidders have no right to object to or interfere with the routine farm operations conducted by the Institute's staff. Strict action will be taken against any individual found causing harm or damage to the orchards, fields, or any government property. This may include imposition of heavy penalties, initiation of police action and other legal proceedings. Offenders may also face long-term legal consequences as deemed appropriate by the authorities.
19	The Earnest Money Deposit (EMD) submitted by unsuccessful bidders shall be refunded promptly upon completion of the bidding/auction process.
20	The Institute shall not be held responsible for any theft, damage, or loss of the tendered produce. However, if any damage is caused to the Institute's property by the bidder/tenderer, their representative, or laborers, appropriate action shall be initiated against the tenderer as deemed necessary.
21	The Institute shall not be held responsible for any loss of crops resulting from natural disasters. In the event that unforeseen circumstances such as severe floods, pandemics (e.g., COVID-19), or similar natural calamities occur towards the end of the tenure, the Director reserves the right to take an appropriate decision regarding the possible extension of the tenure.
22	The fruit crop shall be cut, plucked, harvested, or collected from the orchards/farm only under the supervision of the Farm In-charge or Supervisor and strictly on designated working days.
23	The bidder shall not engage, nor permit the engagement of child labour under any circumstances, in strict compliance with applicable labour laws and regulations.
24	Security Deposit: (A). For the Tamarind orchard fruit crop , the tenderer is required to deposit 10% of the bid amount as a security deposit through Bharatkosh on the spot, i.e., on 27.10.2025 . (B). The security deposit will be refunded upon successful completion of the tender. To facilitate the refund through direct bank transfer, the tenderer must submit their bank account details along with a duly filled Mandate Form.
25	The Institute functions in accordance with the provisions of the Right to Information (RTI) Act, 2005. Therefore, any information provided by you may be subject to disclosure under the provisions of the Act.
26	Under all circumstances, the right of adjudication shall rest with the Director, S.R.F.M.T.T.I., Garladinne – 515731 , and their decision shall be final and binding on all parties concerned.

I hereby confirm that I have read and fully understood all the above-mentioned terms and conditions, and I agree to abide by them in their entirety.
